

In mid-September, last year, dozens of leaders from various sectors of the Latino community gathered to have a dialogue focused on our common needs and create a political platform that represents the needs of our people. From this dialogue was born Latinos in Action 2020.

After several months of consultations with the communities we represent, we proudly announce that our political platform has been completed! To learn what the platform contains and how it will be used, we invite you to our:
